

Locally Led Humanitarian Action in Sudan: Strengthening Response Through Collaboration and Innovation

Conference by Humanitarian Leadership Academy led by local actors in Sudan

The Humanitarian Leadership Academy (HLA) and Save the Children International are inviting you to join a 2-day conference, where the HLA team, local actors and forums meet in a convening space to exchange experiences and networks and share success stories.

About the conference

This conference aims to enhance crisis response by promoting collaboration among local actors and international partners. It will highlight innovative, community-driven solutions to strengthen humanitarian efforts across Sudan.

Key speakers & partners:

- HLA and Save The Children International team
- Save The Children Sudan Country Office
- Local & international humanitarian actors
- Community-based organizations & initiatives
- Government officials & policymakers
- Youth groups & crisis response networks
- Donors & private sector partners

Register here to attend as a participant or speaker

If you would like to facilitate a session, choose 'Yes' in the question 11.

23- 24 September, 2025
Port Sudan

Focal points of contact:

Huseyin Arslan: huseyin.arslan@savethechildren.org

Zeinelabdeen Abbas: Zeinelabdeen.Abbas@savethechildren.org

Connect with us

